House Financial Services Names New Subcommittee Leadership

In the attached release, the House Financial Services Committee announces its new Leadership. Notable among the appointments are Congressmen Blaine Luetkemeyer (R-Mo) and Sean Duffy (R-WI) both who have been friends to the mutual bank industry. Congressman Luetkemeyer will chair the Subcommittee on Financial Institutions and Consumer Credit and Congressman Duffy will chair the Subcommittee on Housing and Insurance. Both of these subcommittees are key to moving forward with regulatory reform. Congressman Rothfus (R-Pa) who introduced the MCC Bill was also named Vice Chair of the Luetkemeyer Subcommittee.
